Dear Mr. Retiree:

We regret to inform you that you are not eligible for the benefits granted by the Law Enforcement Safety Act of 2004. The reason for this disqualification is:

- It was determined that you did not retire in good standing from service with a public agency as a law enforcement officer.
- It was determined that before retirement, you were not authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of, or the incarceration of any person for, any violation of law, or you had no statutory powers of arrest.
- It was determined that before your retirement, you were not regularly employed as a law enforcement officer for an aggregate of 15 years or more; or that you retired from service with such agency, after completing any applicable probationary period of such service, due to a service-connected disability.
- It was determined that you do not have a non-forfeitable right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency.
- It was determined that during the most recent 12-month period, you did not meet the State's standards for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry firearms.
- It was determined that you are under the influence of alcohol or another intoxicating or hallucinatory drug or substance.
- It was determined that you are prohibited by Federal and/or state law from receiving a firearm.
